EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE WOMEN 2024/25

MOTW round 4: HB Ludwigsburg vs Brest Bretagne Handball

HB LUDWIGSBURG (GER) vs BREST BRETAGNE HB (FRA)

Group B, round 4 | Sunday 6 October 2024, 14:00 CEST

Playing hall:

MHP Arena Ludwigsburg
Schwieberdinger Str. 30
71636 Ludwigsburg, Germany

Capacity: 3,800

Key facts:

- since the start of the 2024/25 season, the German champions changed their club name from SG BBM Bietigheim to HB Ludwigsburg, as they now play all of their matches in Ludwigsburg
- the last match as SG BBM was the EHF Champions League Women 2024 final against Győr, which ended in a 24:30 defeat
- Bietigheim/Ludwigsburg were the first-ever German club at any edition of the EHF FINAL4 in Budapest and the first-ever German finalist since the implementation of the CL in 1993
- Brest had been the second-ever French team to make it to the EHF FINAL4 (after Metz in 2019) – and in 2021, even became the first and by now only EHF Champions League Women finalist from France, but lost against Vipers
- while Ludwigsburg took their first win at Rapid in round 3, Brest have the six points on their account and top the table of group B, equal with Győr
- both sides duelled six times, Brest won four matches, Ludwigsburg's only victory was in the home match of the previous season
- both sides had a certain transition after the previous season – at Brest twelve players left and eight arrived – and even the coach changed from Pablo Morel to former French international Raphaëlle Tervel, at Ludwigsburg eight players left and eight arrived

- among Brest's new arrivals is the 2023/24 top scorer of the EHF Champions League and 2023 MVP of the EHF FINAL4, Russian Anna Vyakhireva, currently Brest's best CL scorer with 14 goals – one goal less than Viola Leuchter, Ludwigsburg's current top scorer
- the French runners-up count on two German national team players: goalkeeper Katharina Filter, who was the match-winner in the 33:32 thriller against Esbjerg in round 3, and new arrival Annika Lott; both never played for Bietigheim/Ludwigsburg before
- Xenia Smits had played in France for several year but for Brest's main rivals from Metz
- four Brest players won the silver medal at the 2024 Olympic Games: Pauletta Foppa, Coralie Lassource, Meline Nocandy and Orlane Ondono
- the only Olympic semi-finalists in Ludwigsburg's squad were from Sweden: new arrivals Jenny Carlsson, Johanna Bundsen and Sofia Hvenfeldt (out due to injury after the preliminary round)
- for Ludwigsburg, it is the seventh appearance in the EHF Champions League Women; Brest play their eighth season
- Brest were French champions twice (2012, 2021); Ludwigsburg were on top of the German league five times since 2017
- Ludwigsburg count of players from nine different countries: Germany, Sweden, Hungary, Spain, Denmark, Slovenia, Poland, Czech Republic and Norway, while five nations with the clear majority of France are part of the Brest roster (besides Germany, North Macedonia, Norway and Russia)
- Ludwigsburg's most experienced player, Karolina Kudlacz-Gloc is on maternity leave this season
