Domestic league

SBbet First League

Buducnost will only compete in the championship play-offs of the Montenegrin national league, together with the three best teams from the regular 2022/23 season.

Buducnost have won the national championship each year since its inauguration in 2006/07 and 15 times in total, except for 2019/20 when the season was not played to a finish due to the pandemic.

More info on the SBbet First League:

- The two teams playing the last Match of the Week of 2022 in the EHF Champions League Women have combined won the CL trophy seven times: WHC Buducnost BEMAX (two) and Györi Audi ETO KC (five).
- They met twice in a CL final: in 2012, Buducnost won their two-leg final; in 2014, Györ triumphed at the first EHF FINAL4 in Budapest by beating Buducost.
- Buducnost and Györ won seven of the eight CL titles between 2012 and 2019; their series was only interrupted by CSM Bucuresti in 2016.
- Györ are the first team to win the CL three years in a row (2017-19), but have not lifted the trophy since: the 2019/20 season was not played to a finish, Vipercs Kristiansand won the title in 2020/21 and 2021/22.
- Buducnost have lost all 11 duels with Györ since beating them in a main round match in February 2016.
- Györ beat Buducnost 32:19 in the reverse fixture earlier this season – the biggest winning margin in any of the 26 matches they have played against other.
- Both head coaches are multiple CL winners: Buducnost's Bojana Popovic won six times as a player, including in 2012 with Buducnost; Györ's Ambros Martin won four times as the head coach of Györ.
- Györ are coming into this MOTW after two straight defeats: in the CL against CS Rapid Bucuresti, and in the domestic league against FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria.
- Györ share second place in CL group B with Rapid and Team Esbjerg; all three teams are on 12 points and trail leaders Metz Handball by one point.
- Buducnost rank fifth with nine points, after two close but crucial wins over Storhamar Handball Elite.
- Buducnost playmaker Milena Raicevic is the fifth-best scorer this CL season with 55 goals; Györ line player Linn Blohm is her team's leading scorer with 32.
- Eight Buducnost players and coach Bojana Popovic won bronze with Montenegro at last month's Women's EHF EURO 2022; from Györ, Stine Oftedal and Silje Solberg won gold with Norway, and Sandra Toft and Anne Mette Hansen silver with Denmark.
- Buducnost play their record 27th CL season; Györ take part for 21st time and have reached at least the semi-finals in 14 of their last 16 CL seasons.
- Injury report – Buducnost: Katarina Dzaferovic, Ivona Pavicevic (both injured); Györ: Fodor Csenge (ill), Kari Brattset Dale (maternity leave), Veronica Kristiansen (medical treatment).
