- The Match of the Week is the first time that CSM Bucuresti and CSKA meet in an official match.
- Both teams came through the play-offs of the DELO EHF Champions League with one win and one defeat: CSKA lost 25:20 at RK Krim Mercator before winning the home leg 27:21; CSM won 33:24 at SCM Ramnicu Valcea but lost 27:21 at home the following week.
- Playing their first CL quarter-final in 2015/16, CSM also met a Russian team, Rostov-Don, and advanced following a 55:53 aggregate win.
- CSKA are the only club this season with a women's team and a men's team (EHF European League) reaching the knockout phase of a European club competition.
- CSKA had the most wins (11) of all teams in the group phase, followed by Györi Audi ETO KC (10).
- CSM are in their sixth CL season; they reached the EHF FINAL4 three times and won the title once, in 2016.
- Three players from CSM's 2016 squad are still or again with the club: Croatian goalkeeper Jelena Grubisic, Spanish right wing Carmen Martin and Romanian left back Bianca Bazaliu.
- While CSM are still the only Romanian club to play at an EHF FINAL4, two Russian clubs have done so: Dinamo Sinara from Volgograd and Rostov. Zvezda Zvenigorod, the only CL winners from Russia, lifted the trophy in 2008, before the introduction of the EHF FINAL4 format.

- CSM started with 11 points from seven matches but lost four of their last five matches in the group phase.
- Four CSKA players won Olympic gold with Russia in 2016: Anna Sedoykina, Marina Sudakova, Ekaterina Ilina and Darya Dmitrieva; CSM player Siraba Dembele won silver with France.

- Dembele won the world and EHF EURO titles with France; her CSM teammates Martine Smeets (world title with Netherlands) and Andrea Klikovac (EHF EURO title with Montenegro) also won gold medals with their respective national teams.

- CSM star Cristina Neagu has scored 100 goals so far this CL season; only Brest Bretagne Handball right back Ana Gros has netted more times, 104.

- CSM's squad includes eight different nationalities: Romanian, Croatian, Serbian, Slovenian, Montenegrin, French, Spanish, and Dutch; CSKA's squad has four: Russian, Swedish, Danish, and Macedonian.

- CSKA's Swedish line player Sabina Jacobsen played two seasons for CSM before moving to Moscow in 2019.

- Both teams are missing a key left back because of a knee injury: CSM are without Alexandrina Barbosa, CSKA without Elena Mikhaylichenko.
